

Using MyAdventistHealth to manage your health online

View immunizations, allergies, and health issues.

View lab results.

View documents from your health care provider.

See prescription medications, date started and who ordered it.

View a list of procedures you've had done, and the date.

Download and send your health record summary to another provider.

View radiology results.

View providers' notes from your appointments.

Send and receive secure messages from your provider.

View upcoming appointments and complete forms prior to appointments.

Another way to view lab results.

View videos about what to expect with advanced care.

Forms for upcoming appointments will appear on your homepage. Click to complete them online prior to your appointment.

Toggle between patient health records if you manage other family member's health online.

View allergies on record.

View your latest lab results.

View important announcements from Adventist Health.

1 Form to complete
You have an assigned Form to complete in preparation for an upcoming appointment or as part of transferring information to your health providers.

Welcome to MyAdventistHealth. Here you can easily interact with your health providers and access your health information. For questions, see the contact information at the bottom of the page.

Together inspired
We are standing together for one mission: to live God's love by inspiring health, wholeness and hope. We aim to look past our walls and step out into the community, partnering with you to live a healthy life—physically, mentally, spiritually and socially. Find our more at Togetherinspired.ah.org.
New! View notes from your doctor visits. - Learn More.

Viewing health record for John Smith

Allergies

Bactrim

Latest Results

No information recorded

View Results