

Adventist Health & Rideout

Speakers Bureau

Welcome to the Adventist Health & Rideout (AHRO) Speakers Bureau, a source for speakers on a variety of healthcare topics. Speakers are available to schedule for most club and organizations in advance.

The Speakers Bureau is an essential opportunity to promote good health, increase interactions with community members and share ways to access healthcare. It aligns and supports the AHRO Mission Living God's Love by inspiring health, wholeness and hope. And, it supports AHRO Vision, we will transform the health experience of our communities by improving health, enhancing interactions and making care more accessible.

AHRO speakers are administrators, physicians, and leaders in their specialty and highly versed in the medical field. The year round Speakers Bureau Program provides learning opportunities with a wide selection of options including inspiring and engaging speakers, current information about health immunizations/screenings and conventional health presentations.
