Beyond Loss is a bereavement ministry and grief support center in partnership with the Chaplains Department at Glendale Adventist Medical Center.

BEYOND LOSS PROGRAM FOCUS

“To companion others on their grief journey and encourage them to re-enter life whole-heartedly. To dedicate our expertise and resources to the delivery of needed education in the field of bereavement. To offer healthy guidelines in developing the natural, compassionate skills needed to administer care to the bereaved, and to provide sensitive and professional support of those who dedicate their time and expertise to these ends.”

inspiration, we will use writing exercises to explore our deepest stories and make meaning of our most compelling experiences. This Writing Through Grief training will come from the perspective of both self-exploration and poetic craft. Open to all levels of experience.

THE COMPLEXITIES OF SUICIDE AND GRIEF TRAINING

8 CEs Fee: $120
JUNE 6 8:30AM - 5:30PM

Suicide is an exclusive human response to extreme psychological pain. This training will focus on facilitating support groups specific to survivors of suicide. We will also focus on skill building, interventions and will offer local and national resources. Grief competency is strongly recommended.

NEW! CERTIFIED WRITING THROUGH GRIEF TRAINING

12 CEs Fee: $295
Six consecutive Saturday mornings
starting APRIL 11 and ending MAY 16

When we come together as a community, there is a harmony that creates an opening for healing grace and joy. Taking the risk of writing without knowing in advance what we are going to say or what we might discover offers opportunities for personal growth and gained insights to grief and loss. With poetry as our

About the Presenter

Rev. Alice Parsons Zulli is an ordained minister, a fellow in thanatology and a board certified pastoral counselor. She is the founder and director of BEYOND LOSS, a bereavement ministry and grief support center established at Glendale Adventist Medical Center in 1990 in partnership with the Chaplains Department.

In addition to her position as chaplain and director of Bereavement Support and Services at GAMC, Alice has a private practice counseling the bereaved, speaks internationally on current issues pertaining to death, bereavement, palliative care and end of life issues, and is a published author and bereavement educator.

In 2001, Alice co-founded the Center for Grief and Loss for Children. She takes an active role in several professional organizations, including the Association of Death Education and Counseling, the American Association of Suicidology, the American Association of Christian Counselors, the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists and the International Association of Trauma Professionals. She is a member of the Spiritual Life Council at GAMC and advocates for palliative/comfort care and end of life issues as well as perinatal loss and bereavement.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing Provider #CEP-73 and Board of Behavioral Science #PCE 2111.
