Simi Valley Foundation

ABOUT US:

The Adventist Health Simi Valley Foundation was established in 2001 to support Adventist Health Simi Valley's commitment to provide high quality, comprehensive care to the communities of Ventura County. Specifically, the foundation cultivates charitable gifts to provide the equipment and tools necessary for Adventist Health Simi Valley to care for those who are ill or in need of health care services.

Philanthropic support improves the quality of life for our patients, their families and loved ones while providing the means to respond to the ever-changing health care needs of our communities.
